Profile

The publication read by key decision makers

Meininger's Wine Business International is the global trade's 'must read' wine trade publication. Read by subscribers in more than 30 countries, it offers decision makers an overview of the international marketplace, backed up with the most relevant facts and figures, analyses and news and opinion, all in an accessible format.

At a glance

The publication covers both new and emerging markets, including areas as diverse as China, Australia, the United Kingdom, the United States, Scandinavia and Russia, as well as emerging markets such as Vietnam,

Poland and Brazil. Our journalists write about market trends, export fluctuations, opportunities and case studies, giving readers a comprehensive view of what's new in the world of wine.

Our readers

Meininger's Wine Business International's subscriber base includes buyers, importers and distributors in major markets. There is no other publication that allows you to speak to so many influential people at once.

Your presence in the publication will be seen in multiple markets at once, by the people who matter.
